The hotel, located in the picturesque seaside village of Old Hunstanton on the north Norfolk coast overlooks the sea. Although standing on the east coast of England it faces west across the Wash, famous for its sunsets and wildlife. The hotel grounds sweep down to one of the finest, sandy beaches in an area of many lovely beaches.

Standing just a stone's throw from the sea, the hotel offers guests the perfect location to escape and relax in affordable, stylish and comfortable surroundings.

Bursting with character, the hotel is well situated from which to explore the local area which includes attractions such as Sandringham House, Norfolk Lavender, and the historic market town of King's Lynn.

The hotel has 43 individually decorated bedrooms with the facilities you expect from a well-appointed hotel. With a variety of dining options available, the hotel has a restaurant to suit every requirement.

The Brasserie and Bar is the ideal location in which to enjoy a wide range of traditional dishes. The hotel's chefs source the very best local and seasonal produce so that guests can be sure that the meal they are enjoying is of the very highest quality.

The Oak Bar and terrace serves a range of food throughout the day and is the ideal place to enjoy a drink whilst watching the sunset over the sea.

Guests are invited to take advantage of the Summer House in the gardens of the hotel; the elegant building provides a private dining experience for up to 14 guests. (Must be pre-booked.)

As well as being an ideal location for a relaxing break, the hotel is an established business centre, and is able to provide comprehensive conference and meeting facilities and also provides a picturesque and elegant location for a wedding.

The Boat House Apartments

Set in the grounds of the hotel, the Boat House apartments enjoy sweeping views across the lawns to the beach and sea beyond. The Boat House offers two self-catering apartments and on the lower ground floor, two individual guest bedrooms.

Each of the apartments has a fully equipped kitchenette with dishwasher, a comfortable lounge/dining room and balcony.

The ground floor apartment has 3 double rooms, whilst the first floor apartment has 2 double rooms.

All the bedrooms have en-suite facilities, television, radio and a direct dial telephone.

Small groups on business or leisure, can be accommodated together on either hotel terms or a self-catering package.

Ancient Mariner Inn

Next to the hotel is the Ancient Mariner Inn, a popular village pub which welcomes families and is renowned for its choice of real ales and wines.

Whether it's a cool drink watching a summer sunset or enjoying a hearty meal for winter warmth, you'll find it here.

Its buildings date back to the 1600s. They were originally the barns and stable block for the adjacent house. There are low beams, snug seating and plenty of nooks and crannies to explore. Atmospheric, the pub has a fine collection of local nautical prints and regalia.

Outside there is a well-designed terrace, decking and children's play area. It's an idyllic setting for a drink and a meal.

Local Attractions

Hunstanton Cliffs

Titchwell Marsh

Whenever you visit you will find a wealth of things to see and do in North West Norfolk.

The coast is an “area of outstanding natural beauty,” largely undeveloped, with charming flint and pantiled villages in quiet countryside.

Close by are the RSPB reserves of Titchwell and Snettisham with whom the hotel has a close relationship.

Also in the vicinity are the great house and estates of Sandringham, Holkham and Houghton. Norfolk Lavender is only minutes away.

To test the golfer, Hunstanton Golf Club is half a mile from the hotel with Royal Norfolk, Cromer and Swaffham within easy reach.

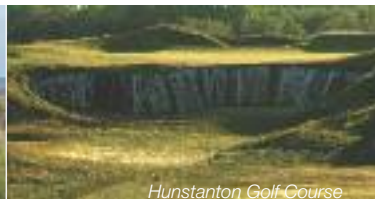

Spectacular sunsets on the West Norfolk coast

The traditional seaside town of Hunstanton is close by, with its famous “striped” cliffs, promenade and many other attractions. Opposite the hotel are the Old Barns, one of the largest antiques, arts and craft centres in Norfolk.

The Norfolk Coast Path passes by the bottom of our garden which goes all the way to Cromer.
